

L2 Tech Award in Health and Social Care

Aim: To equip students with a sound, specialist and realistic understanding of how to meet the needs of individuals using services and specialist equipment, whilst challenging stereotypes and discrimination. The study of care values is at the heart of Health and Social Care which develops skills such as empathy, compassion, commitment, tolerance and empowerment; enabling students to become educated citizens and contribute to society in a positive way

Year 11 Summer

Revision for re-sit

Component 3 external assessment

Revision if re-sitting

Year 11 Spring

Exam skills

Exam preparation
Develop exam technique and revise topics of component 3

Revision of needs and PIESF terminology

Health and wellbeing improvement plans

Explore the features of health and wellbeing improvement plans and obstacles of implementation whilst consolidating knowledge of health and social care services

Health indicators

Interpret indicators that can be used to measure physiological health, interpreting data using published guidance and explore lifestyle indicators.

Year 11 Autumn

Year 10 Summer

Component 1 and 2 Assessment

Coping with life events
Examine how individuals can adapt or be supported through changes caused by life events

Factors affecting health and wellbeing
Develop deeper understanding of how lifestyle, economic, environmental, physical, social, emotional and cultural factors can have a positive or negative impact on individual health and wellbeing

Assessment Technique

Year 10 Spring

Life events
Exploration of the different events that can impact on people's physical, intellectual, emotional and social development

Care Values
Explore and practise applying the different care values that are key to the delivery of effective health and social care services

Application Skills

Health and social care services
Exploration of the types of health and social care service provision and barriers to accessing them individuals face

Knowledge and Understanding

Year 10 Autumn

Factors Affecting Development
Exploration of how physical, social, cultural and economic factors affect development

Human development
Exploration the physical, intellectual, intellectual, and emotional development norms in human beings

Introduction to Health and Social Care
Introduction to the needs of service users across the life stages